

NAMASTE

(NUHM-UH-STEY)

Namaste is used as a respectful form of greeting, acknowledging and welcoming a relative, guest or stranger. It is used with goodbyes as well.

Typically, it is spoken and simultaneously performed with the palms touching gesture.

The word Namaste translates simply to "I bow to the divine in you."

spa policies

We kindly request that you arrive at least 15 minutes before your scheduled appointment. This will allow time for you to fill out the required intake form, enjoy all of our wonderful amenities, and ensure full treatment time. Arriving late for an appointment may result in a shorter session at full-price.

Cancellations must be made at least 24 hours prior to your appointment time. Late cancellations will be charged at 50%. No-shows will be charged in full.

Please do not bring valuables to the Spa.

Request for male or female therapist needs to be made at the time of booking. We will do our best to accommodate your requests. All of our therapists are highly-trained and conduct themselves with the utmost professionalism.

Hours, prices and services are subject to change.

To ensure the most relaxing spa experience, please be prepared to turn off all cell phones and electronics.

The therapist retains the right to refuse service to any suspicious persons, those appearing to be under the influence of any drugs or alcohol, or those appearing to have signs and symptoms of any disorder that may contraindicate the treatment to be given.

Prices reflect discount for Marriott Guests, Owners and Locals. Please contact us for more information on discount qualifications. All prices include gratuity.
